

TREES IN THE PLANNING PROCESS

Supported by: GreenBlue Urban; Lockhart Garratt

13.00 Registration Refreshments & Networking

13.30 Welcome, Introduction

Part 1: Recognising the Importance of Trees in Essential and Effective Planning

Chair: Andy Lederer, Development Director, Institute of Chartered Foresters

The importance of trees and green landscaping to making places we want to live in

13.35 Understanding the Rudiments of BS 5837:2012

Trees in relation to design, demolition and construction

Nick Bolton MICFor, Director & Arboricultural Consultant, Lockhart Garratt Ltd.

13.55 The Importance of Local Planning Policy and Effective Planning Conditions

Ian Phillips MRTPI CMLI, Landscape and Planning Consultant

14.20 What Information is it Reasonable for the Local Planning Authority to Expect with a Planning Application?

Chris Neilan MICFor, Principal Officer, Landscape & Trees, Epping Forest District Council

14.40 Panel Q & A

15.00 Break Refreshments & Networking

15.30 Part 2: Trees in the Place

Chair: Martin Small MRTPI, RTPI South East Regional Advisory Committee

The considerations for introducing and working with trees in the place

15.35 Trees in Historic and Designed Landscapes

Martin Small MRTPI, Principal Advisor, Historic Places Team, Historic England South East.

Questions to Martin

15.50 Arboricultural Methods, Special Techniques and Site Supervision

Sharon Hosegood FICFor, Director, Sharon Hosegood Associates

Questions to Sharon

16.15 Making the Right Tree, Right Place Happen in Practice

Martin Gammie MICFor, Managing Director, Consulting with Trees Ltd (TBC)

Questions to Martin

16.40 Securing Full Mitigation Value: A Case Study

Matt Searle MRTPI MICFor, Principal Arboricultural Planning Consultant, Treework Environmental Practice

Questions to Matt

16.55 Summing Up: Martin Small MRTPI

17.00 Close Delegates depart