Vacancy at Nicholsons

Nicholsons, based in North Oxfordshire, offers a complete woodland and tree management service, providing professional support to landowners in the areas of Woodland Management and Arboriculture.

An opportunity has arisen for us to employ a Woodland Manager who will play a key role in the continued development of our successful forestry business, working within our team of foresters and arborists in this full-time position in and around the Oxfordshire area.

The successful applicant will preferably be proficient in all aspects of woodland creation and lowland broadleaved woodland management. The role requires an individual with a practical approach with innovative thinking to respond to today's dynamic forestry industry, ideally with a minimum of two years' relevant experience in forestry, countryside or land management together with an appropriate forestry qualification. However, candidates with alternative qualifications will be considered if suitably experienced and with a demonstrable interest in all matters relating to woodlands.

The role will include preparation of management plans and grant applications for farms and estates, timber sales and the design and implementation of amenity tree planting schemes, and will incorporate the management of direct employees and contracted teams.

The ideal candidate must enjoy meeting clients in order to build on Nicholsons strong position in the market. Self-motivation and excellent interpersonal skills are essential as are computer skills. Work will be both office-based and on site. A full clean UK driving licence is required and a towing licence would be a bonus. Professional membership of the Institute of Chartered Foresters or another relevant body is desirable.

This is a full time position, Monday – Friday 7:30am to 4:30pm. Training will be provided where necessary. There is also a full benefits package, including generous pension, 29 days holiday including Bank Holidays (pro-rata based on a 40-hour week) rising to 34 days after 2 year's service and access to holiday cabins in Wales, Scotland and France.

Attractive salary, depending on experience.
