

Future Woodlands Scotland

Innovative Thinking for Native Woodland

Project Manager - Future Woodlands Fund

Permanent full-time or two part-time posts considered

Salary circa £40,000 / Hours 35 per week

Future Woodlands Scotland is a Charity working to create and conserve native woodlands in Scotland. We are seeking an experienced Project Manager(s) to join our small and friendly team to manage the Future Woodlands Fund - a programme of financial incentives to enable the creation and conservation of native woodlands.

The Role

Reporting to the Chief Executive and working closely with the Finance & Operations and Communications Managers, the Project Manager will be responsible for the development and management of the Future Woodlands Fund to ensure it is managed effectively, efficiently and on budget.

The Candidate

- Educated to degree level or equivalent in forestry or a relevant discipline
- A minimum of five years demonstrable experience in woodland creation and management including experience of native woodland creation
- Experience of working with land managers including farmers and community groups
- A working knowledge of Scottish woodland grant schemes and application process
- Enthusiasm for native woodland conservation and management in Scotland
- Good interpersonal and influencing skills demonstrating the ability to build and maintain effective working relationships with land managers, agents and contractors
- Excellent organisation skills and ability to prioritise and manage a varied workload
- Competent and self-reliant in QGIS, Microsoft Teams, Excel and Word applications
- An enthusiastic, flexible and positive approach
- Professional membership of the Institute of Chartered Foresters or another relevant professional body is desirable.

Please visit our website for a full Job Description and Person Specification.

This role is home based (within Scotland). It includes travel throughout Scotland to meetings and site visits with occasional overnight stays as required. Occasional weekend work may be required. A full driving licence and access to a vehicle is essential.

Apply

Deadline for Applications is 9am on Monday 24th October 2022. Interviews will be in person in Edinburgh on Tuesday 8th November 2022. For more information and how to apply, please visit our website.

Institute of Chartered Foresters

e icf@charteredforesters.org
t 0131 240 1425
w www.charteredforesters.org
59 George Street, Edinburgh EH2 2JG
Incorporated by Royal Charter 1982