

FORESTRY AND LAND SCOTLAND

Technical Trainer

Salary: £36,698 - £39,522 (pay review pending)

Job reference: REQ0446

Location: Various

Contract type: Full time

Working pattern: This is a full-time vacancy, based on a 37 hour week

Working at Forestry and Land Scotland is all about 'People, Pride and Purpose'.

We are proud of our people. At Forestry and Land Scotland, you will work with over a thousand talented, innovative and committed people who enjoy a range of flexible working options.

Join us and take pride in helping look after something incredibly valuable to the people of Scotland and its visitors – Scotland's national forests and land.

Your role will have a clear purpose in helping us adapt and respond to climate change in Scotland, supporting the economy, protecting and enhancing the environment, and bringing increased positive benefits to the people of Scotland.

To support the business in achieving this, we have created a new role of Technical Trainer within our Learning and Development Team. The Technical Trainers will be embedded in each of our five regions and will work closely with the regions to identify learning needs, deliver interventions and work with external parties / industry bodies to influence the wider conversation about technical forestry training.

If you are interested, please see the job description and Success Profile document attached for a full overview of the role.

Send us your CV and a supporting statement for this role (we have provided a copy of the CV template to assist you).

Candidates should be chartered or working towards chartered status.

Closing date: 11 November 2022.
