Salary: £31,178 - £33,262 + 26% Employer Pension Contributions

Contractual hours: 37

Basis: Full time

Working at Forestry and Land Scotland is all about 'People, Pride and Purpose.' Join us and take pride in helping look after something incredibly valuable to the people of Scotland and its visitors – Scotland's national forests and land.

At FLS, you'll work with over a thousand talented, innovative, and committed people. Together we're helping adapt and respond to climate change in Scotland, supporting the economy, protecting and enhancing the environment, and bringing increased positive benefits to the people of Scotland

Our Foresters are responsible for planning and managing programmes of work for their team in areas such as planting and maintaining forests, habitat and visitor management and so much more!

It's an exciting time to join us as everything you do will play a key role in delivering the biodiversity and climate change objectives for Scotland.

To support you achieve this, you will participate in a comprehensive induction programme and have the option to work with a Mentor for your first six months.

If you're interested, please see the job description and Success Profile document attached for a full role overview.

Please apply through the link, we require a CV and a supporting statement for this role (we have provided a copy of a CV template and application guidance to assist you).

Professional membership of the Institute of Chartered Foresters or another relevant professional body is desirable.

Please provide us with your preferred Region – North/South/East/West/Central - when prompted or as part of your supporting statement.

The recruiting panel will review CVs week commencing 4th of September, with interviews aiming to take place between the 18th to 25th of september. The interviews will be in person at the regional offices.

Application closing date: 4 September 2023.
